Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers!

Christmas, Christmas, everywhere! The most glorious season of the year is here. The spirit of giving and sharing is in each heart. God so loved the world that he gave His only Begotten Son that He could save the world. Let us share and remember others at this beautiful season. The Faculty and Student Body of Carver-Price extend to all a Merry Christmas and prosperous New Year.

Last Sunday the Christmas Cantata was presented under the direction of Miss Celestral Sergeon, music instructor. Seven scenes were enacted with Diane Tibbs as Mary, and James Graham as Joseph. The choir furnished background music.

Wednesday, the annual school Christmas Party was held in the Gym. A Swing Combo Band from Dunbar High School furnished the music. This orchestra was used last year and enjoyed by our student body. All grades, from the 1rst to the twelfth will participate. Gifts will be placed under the school Christmas tree, and refreshments will be served. Students look forward to this party each year, which is under the direction of the Student Council.

The Varsity journed to Bedford on Tuesday, December 20, to play Susie Gibson High School. This team won over us by 1 point, and we are expecting to win over them in the return game.

Tuesday night, December 20, the P.-T. A. sponsored a Christmas Dance in order to raise funds to finish paying for a balance of $1,800.00 on cafeteria equipment.

The Sixth Grade division under Mrs. T. W .Hamlet reports they have hung up their stocking for Santa, and purchased all of the items for their Christmas party. The punch will be made from the lemons and oranges grown in the Classroom. They have ripened nicely. Gifts will be exchanged in the class among the students and gifts will be sent to their parents, some which were made in their class. Prizes will be given to Beatrice James and Ernest Butler for 100% attendance to date. They wish all a Merry Christmas.

Until we greet each of you in the New Year, our thought is:

"What babe newborn is this that in a manger cries?
Near on her lowly bed his happy mother lies.
Oh, see the air is shaken with white and heavenly wings —
This is the Lord of all the earth, this is the King of Kings."

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

NEW SONGS REPLACE MOTHER GOOSE, KIDS

Stow the Mother Goose bit, Mom . . . Junior wants to rock and roll.

In children's records it appears that items like "Sixteen Tons" and "Only You" have repalced the sly red rox and Little Boy Blue.

And the kiddie record business is in the doldrums as a result of Junior's precocious preference for grown-up (?) music.

A few years ago sales of children's records accounted for fully 15 per cent of total disk unit sales, but nowadays the disks-for-moppets phase of the business is a starving orphan in the midst of booming demands for every other record category from flugle-horn solos to modern jazz.

Record companies are consequently lopping heads in the kiddie divisions with a gusto that would satisfy even the most blood-thirsty seven-year-old Injun Joe . . if he could see the process on TV.

But TV, which must be held accountable for contributing to the trend, is not totally at fault. Something else is wrong, too, for sales of record players for children have climbed inversely as sales of kiddie records have fallen.

No doubt that the Cyclops-eye takes up time when the tots might be playing records. Some authorities say, too, that TV is "maturing" (?) youngsters faster than ever before.

On TV, authorities say, the youngsters hear popular records, classics, traditional and modern jazz, and just about everything else except records designed especially for them. So they are conditionally presold on "My Heart Cried for You," instead of "The Little Train that Tried."

UDC Presents Book to Library

JEFFERSON DAVIS

New Book at the County Library

Hudson Strode's biography of Jefferson Davis—an American Patriot —1808 - 1861, covers his years as West Point cadet, as lieutenant on frontier duty, hero in the Mexican War, as Representative, Senator, Secretary of War, and ends with his inauguration as President of the Confederate States in February, 1861.

The book not only throws new light on the formative years of one of the most misunderstood figures in American history, but it is a colorful and detailed history of the period and provides revealing insight into the South's view of the gathering crisis. Mr. Strode includes newly discovered material of one of the least known periods of Davis' life, his marriage in 1835 to Sarah Knox Taylor, daugnter of Zackary Taylor, and her death, which was tragic, three months later. The role of his brother, Joseph, wealthy cotton planter, is also given. Mr. Strode has had access to scores of letters never seen outside the family, including love letters to Varina Howell, whom Davis married in 1845.

This book was presented to the County Library by the Appomattox Chapter No. 6 of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.
